The Associação Amigos do Teatro Municipal do Rio de Janeiro (Association of Friends of the Municipal Theater of Rio de Janeiro), counted on Waiver's expertise to export the stage design and the costumes of the show "Ballet Copelia" to Uruguay.

Coppélia is a comic ballet originally choreographed by Arthur Saint-Léon to the music of Léo Delibes, with libretto by Charles Nuitter. Nuitter's libretto and mise-en-scène was based upon two stories by E. T. A. Hoffmann: Der Sandmann (The Sandman) and Die Puppe (The Doll). In Greek, κοπελιά means girl, young lady. Coppélia premiered on 25 May 1870 at the Théâtre Impérial l'Opéra, with the 16-year-old Giuseppina Bozzacchi in the principal role of Swanhilde. Its first flush of success was interrupted by the Franco-Prussian War and the Siege of Paris (which also led to the early death of Giuseppina Bozzacchi, on her 17th birthday), but eventually it became the most-performed ballet at the Opéra.

2,690Kg of material for the presentations was transported. The Ballet will be performed from March 19 to April 2, 2015, at the National Sodre Auditorium in Montevideo.
